APPLY TO BE A GRADUATE
WELL-BEING ASSOCIATE

UC San Diego Student Health and Well-being, in partnership with Graduate Division, is seeking a diverse team of four dedicated UC San Diego graduate students to educate peers about mental health and well-being,

The Graduate Well-Being Associates will:
- Present mental health and well-being workshops to graduate students
- Outreach to residents of graduate student housing
- Table at campus wide events /host virtual resource rooms
- Support the new CAPS satellite office in grad housing
- Create web-based and social media mental health and well-being content

Position & Compensation Details found on Handshake
Applications due by Friday, July 24, 2020
https://ucsdjoinhandshake.com/login  Job #3855087

Interviews, training and job responsibilities will be completed virtually when social distancing is required or prudent.