TRANSLATING TRANSFERABLE SKILLS
highlighting your soft and hard skills.
week 3 / tues, jan 21th / 3:30pm - 4:30pm

Can you name the skills from your experiences in school, at home, volunteering, and/or student organizations, that can translate to a future internship or job? Employers often look for individuals who can demonstrate a good set of soft and hard skills. Come out for an activity to identify YOUR standout transferable skills and a review of career readiness competencies at UCSD. Presented by an Academic Internship Program Internship Counselor.

INTERVIEWS CLASSIFIED
secrets to acing your interview.
week 5 / tues, feb 4th / 3:30pm - 4:30pm

The interview process can be intimidating to navigate. Regardless of the extent of your interview experience, there’s always room for improvement. This program explores beyond interview 101 basics, touching on pre- and post- interview etiquette and substantial tips to help you make a skillful impression. Come out for the interview secrets no one tells you! Presented by the Career Services Center.

YOUR FIRST JOB JOURNEY
how to succeed in your first job out of college.
week 7 / tues, feb 18th / 3:30pm - 4:30pm

So you’ve landed your first job...What exactly will it entail? Beyond your job responsibilities, there are important things to consider and act upon in order to help you accomplish your goals. Come out to learn strategies and tips on how to succeed in your first job, from what to focus on in the first 90 days, to how to prevent overwhelm and burnout. Hosted by The Zone’s Program Manager.